by Delicia Ennis

- How do you feel about interviews? Do you have one coming up soon?
- Which tip was most helpful to you?
- Which suggestion inspired you most?

Bonus Questions

- In the past, have you considered the ways in which an interview was a success? In the past, what have been your biggest challenges when interviewing?
- How did these helpful tips address the hardest part of interviewing for you?

Reach UP to God

- Do you have an interview coming up? Ask God to give you strength, courage and a sound mind to be the woman God has made you with all your skills, life experience and wisdom. Include praying for the company and for the individual who will be interviewing you. Remember that grace will fill the interview. Invite God in!
- Ask a friend to join you in prayer for your upcoming interview.
