

The ONE Thing You Can Do This Summer that Makes a Difference in Your Kid's Future
by Julieta Ortiz

- Do you like to read?
- What kinds of things do you like to read?
- What do you remember about reading as a child?

Bonus Questions

- What do your kids think about reading?
- Which idea popped off the page as an idea you could see yourself using?
- Do you have a library near your house or easy access to children's books?
- What time of day do you think would work best for your family to get a reading routine started?

Reach UP to God

- God calls Himself the living Word (John 1:1)! Think of that when you begin to read words that could transform your life and the lives of your children.
- Pray for faithfulness as you begin to plan the summer ahead filled with a new and helpful habit of reading, reading aloud, and getting the family involved.
- Ask God to help you think of a great way to celebrate a summer full of reading! Let your imagination soar.
