

My Story Isn't Unique - The Ending Is

by Dr. Melanie B. Hoskins

- What challenges did Dr. Hoskins face while growing up and becoming a young mother?
- Who were some of the people that supported Dr. Hoskins along the way, and how did they help her?
- What does the statement "Your beginning does not determine your ending" mean to you?

Bonus Questions:

- Have you ever faced obstacles that made it difficult to reach your goals?
- Who are the people in your life that encourage and support you when things get hard?
- What is one goal or dream you want to keep moving toward, even when the journey feels difficult?

Reach UP to God:

Read Jeremiah 29:11 — "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

Take a moment to thank God for the people He has placed in your life to encourage and support you. Ask Him to help you stay focused, ask for help when you need it, and keep moving forward even when life is difficult.

Prayer:

"God, thank You for being with me through every challenge. Help me remember that my past does not define my future. Give me the courage to keep going, the humility to ask for help, and the faith to trust the plans You have for my life. Amen."
